

Message from the Organising Chairman

With all the uncertainties and foreboding situation, the Organising Committee hopes to present this Chapter of PMPASKL Annual Scientific Congress without any hitch. The 2020 session has been cancelled despite two postponements to salvage it. The 2021 conference was finally held virtually after two postponements.

We had brainstormed and came up with many current topics related to our daily practices. These were questions and problems frequently encountered and will need to be solved. We also had current topics of interest presented by our generous sponsors.

We hope this chapter would conclude successfully with the usual attendance to a fruitful weekend of updating our knowledge and skills, renewing our friendship and camaraderie, revitalising our commitment for the betterment of our society and members, and to its cause.

So fellow colleagues, enjoy the weekend and we look forward to more support from our members.
